

ALEXANDRIA ROADS TO BE IMPROVED

Common Council Votes $31,000 Measure Creating Commission, to Highways Used as City Gateways.

ALENANDRIA, April 12.— Three pateways into Alexandria are to be improved with modern roadways, according to a decision reached by the common council. Ordinances appropriating $31,000 for the work were passed and sent on to the board of aldermen for action. The ordinances provide $11,000 each for King street road and for Rusrell roa I from the Union Station to the city limits and $9,000 for Duke street extended, connecting the city streets with the improved road recently built by the Fairfax county authorities.

The license regulations were passed

The license regulations were passed practically without change except that liquor dealers will pay fees for five months only as prohibition goes into effect on November 1. The tax on banks is reduced from $1.80 to $1.15.

The finance committee of the city school board reported that $1,300 less than was estimated will be received from the State funds and the city council was asked to make up the deficiency. The Richmond Theater management was given permission to add a stage and a balcony.

The board of aldermen, as a mark of respect to the late J. Marriott Hill adjourned without transacting any business. Eulogies were delivered by President Field and Alderman Jacob Brill.

The Safest Investments Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-lages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, "constitute "gilt-edge" investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability, and are exempt from taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $500 upward. Send for booklet "Concerning Loans and Investments."

FOR STOCKS TODAY

No Business Transacted or Washington Exchange During the Regular Call.

There was but little demand for either stocks or bonds at today's session of the Washington Stock Exchange. No business was transacted during the regular call, which resulted only 'in the establishment of the bid and asked prices of the previous day.

After call three twenty-five share lots of Washington Gas stock changed hands at 75%, 75%, and 76. A broker offered 75% for 100 shares of this stock, and was willing to pay 75% for fifty shares, with 76 the lowest offering.

The only other stock sale was two shares of Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company stock at 154. No ondeds were traded in.

Yesterday's bid price was advanced from one-quarter to a half point, after call, on a number of the more active stocks, but brokers seemed loath to sell. Lanston was bid up a nuartes point to 76%, and Washington Railway and Electric Company preferred was advanced a half point to 824.

Washington Railway and Electric Company 4 per cent bonds were bid up a quarter point to $1, and 100% was offered for $50,000 Potomac Electric Power Company Consolidated 5 per cent bonds. Today's Sales.
